REVIEWS

EXPERIENCE THE WORLD PREMIERE OF "THE FUNDRAISER" WEDNESDAY – APRIL 29, 2007

THE GUSMAN THEATER, DOWNTOWN MIAMI & SOON TO BE SEEN IN FILM FESTIVALS WORLDWIDE

A humorous touching behind the scenes look at exposing the good, the bad, the ugly and everything in between – featuring Bay Point volunteers, donors, celebrity supporters and the everyday challenges facing the Bay Point Schools Boys

"If this doesn't get you out of bed to do something and be Somebody nothing ever will."
- Kamal Hotchandani, publisher of Haute Living

"Funniest reality show ever" -Tom Murphy, Coastal Construction

"From Madonna to Pre-madonna's.....This documentary will bring world wide attention to the rich, famous, infamous, wannabees, has beens, and never will bes. Expect everyone from no where to want to move to Miami – where anything goes for a "good cause."
- Elaine Lancaster, Diva

"Lea Black finally unveils the mysteries of how she is able to raise huge amounts of monies from people She knows and doesn't know – brilliant." - Arthur Metz

"When I grow up – I want to be Lea Black" - Valerie Zucker

"How to save lives while having fun." - Antonio Misuraca

"You cannot make up this craziness – insane and hysterical" Jason Clarke

"Sundance hasn't seen anything yet" - Donald J. Pliner

"If you're not in this film – shame on you" - Lea Black "Move over Truman Capote. Forget Studio 54. Liquid is closed. A voyeur's view of creating Miami's greatest party" - Roy Black

" I'm giving up the nightlife and dedicating my life to charity - That's where all the fun is"
-Michael Capponi

"This film showcases the high style fashion and glamour of the Miami Social Scene"
- Lisa Pliner

"Who are all of these nuts?" - Randy Fiorenza

"This group makes celebrities look normal and Miami's night life yesterdays news and tabloid gossip irrelevant" - Ingrid Casares

"An Inconvenient Mess" - Al Gore, just kidding.

* Better than "La dolce vita" - Federico Fellini
