

BLACK, SREBNICK, KORNSPAN & STUMPF, P.A.

THE FIRM This Miami-based litigation boutique continues to earn high praise from market commentators for its high-profile white-collar litigation practice. It is skilled in a variety of areas, including civil litigation and criminal defense work. Sources agree the firm is capable of handling the most complex cases thanks to its admirable depth of experience in a broad range of sectors.

Sources say: "The group is absolutely first rate, with very creative outside-the-box thinking and a really sophisticated approach to its cases."

KEY INDIVIDUALS With decades of trial experience, Roy Black is universally praised by market observers as "one of the best lawyers down here, hands down."

The "excellent" Howard Srebnick handles high-profile and complex white-collar criminal and civil litigation, and has a particular focus on financial matters. He is known to be "very good in trial," with one lawyer saying he is "as thoughtful as you can get."

Larry Stumpf leads the firm's civil litigation practice and is particularly renowned for his expertise in commercial contract and unfair competition claims.
