JOSHUA SHORE AND ROSSANA ARTEAGA-GOMEZ NAMED AS PARTNERS AT BLACK SREBNICK KORNSPAN & STUMPF, PA

Miami, FL – July 6, 2017 – Black Srebnick Kornspan & Stumpf, PA, is pleased to announce that Joshua Shore and Rossana Arteaga-Gomez have been named as partners at the Firm.

Joshua Shore joined the firm in 2010, following two federal judicial clerkships. At the firm, he has achieved favorable results for individual and institutional clients in a variety of high-stakes matters, specializing in legal research and writing for trial and appellate matters in both state and federal court. He recently worked on the landmark U.S. Supreme Court case Sila Luis v. United States, which successfully challenged the government’s pretrial restraint of a criminal defendant’s untainted assets needed to retain counsel of choice. And as counsel for amicus curiae in Puerto Rico v. Sanchez Valle, he argued that the separate sovereigns doctrine is inconsistent with the Constitutional Double Jeopardy clause, which two U.S. Supreme Court Justices observed in a concurring opinion “warrants attention in a future case.” Mr. Shore was named one of the “Most Effective Lawyers” by the Daily Business Review in 2016, and he has been recognized as a “Rising Star” by Florida Super Lawyers since 2013, as well as an “Up and Comer” by Florida Trend since 2014.

Rossana Arteaga-Gomez joined the firm in 2014. After serving as a law clerk to the Honorable Marcia G. Cooke and the Honorable Edwin G. Torres, Ms. Arteaga-Gomez became an Assistant Public Defender at the Miami-Dade Public Defender’s Office. Ms. Arteaga-Gomez also taught Legal Research and Writing at the University of Miami School of Law for three years. Ms. Arteaga-Gomez has extensive experience in both state and federal practice. She has tried numerous cases, ranging from first degree murder, burglary, and insurance fraud to driving under the influence. Since joining the firm, she has worked tirelessly on document-intensive white collar criminal cases involving allegations of healthcare fraud and bank fraud. Through her dedicated effort, Ms. Arteaga-Gomez has been able to obtain outstanding results for her clients. Ms. Arteaga-Gomez is fluent in Spanish.
