BLACK SREBNICK KORNSPAN & STUMPF, PA ANNOUNCES NEW FIRM ASSOCIATES

Miami, FL – March 14, 2014 – Black Srebnick Kornspan & Stumpf, PA, is pleased to welcome three associate attorneys who have recently joined the team.

Phoebe J. Elder comes to us from the United States District Court, Southern District of Florida, where she researched and drafted bench memoranda in civil and criminal cases for the Honorable Robin S. Rosenbaum. She graduated cum laude from Princeton University, and obtained her J.D. from the University of California, Berkeley in 2012. There, she was awarded the Prosser Prize in International Law.

Jared W. Whaley previously worked for the Miami-Dade Public Defender's Office where he developed and implemented strategies for litigating cases involving forensic evidence and expert testimony. Jared received his undergraduate degree from Vanderbilt University, and his J.D. from The George Washington University Law School in 2009. He volunteers as a Youth Mentor with the Miami Bridge, and serves on the Board of Directors of the Theodore Roosevelt Gibson Memorial Fund.

Paul Souferis is not new to the firm, having previously worked with the firm on an independent basis, assisting with preparing for a multi-week federal criminal trial. After obtaining dual undergraduate degrees in Accountancy and Finance at the University of Illinois, he graduated magna cum laude from the University of Miami Law School in 2012.
