

CHAMBERS USA 2008

BLACK, SREBNICK, KORNSPAN & STUMPF, P.A.

THE FIRM: The 14 attorneys at this criminal defense boutique are “the lawyers to seek out for white-collar work.” With so many devoted practitioners it covers the whole range of cases at state and federal level, although what sets it apart more than anything is its prominence in, and skillful handling of, the national media. Roy Black excels in this area and sources enthuse about his ability here, in an area where the media can so often be a client’s worst enemy. This is by no means a one-size-fits-all approach however, with many of the group’s clients kept well away from public scrutiny, while still benefiting from the “terrific trial skills” at the firm.

THE LAWYERS: Peers and clients heap praise upon Roy Black, “a talented, smart and hard-working lawyer” who “is in a league of his own.” He is described as “the greatest white-collar lawyer in the state, period.” Recent high-profile work involved representing radio host Rush Limbaugh through ongoing attempts by the state to convict him under doctor shopping laws. In Howard Srebnick the firm has another of the state’s best-regarded white-collar attorneys. One source commented: “He’s a fantastic defense counsel and one of the smartest guys I know.”
